hello
London...

my phone has died
cough cough
tell my wife cough
I love her
die

but luckily my friend has a phone to take photos.

If I didn't have my friend, the comic would have looked like this:

hello
london
hello
St. Paul's

hello
London
Eye

Hello River Thames
hello weird-looking building called The Walkie-Talkie that everyone hates

hello
ALL THE PREVIOUS LANDMARKS IN ONE

VIEW
hello beautiful sky that makes it all extra good
ALL THE PREVIOUS LANDMARKS IN ONE SPECTACULAR VIEW

@dorrismccomics
Web toon

but with the subtleties of photographs you can see all the details and flaws of what it was like on the Thames South Bank that day.
